2024 Keith Thurgood Open Wheelrace is sponsored by Payneham Cycling club and thank you to the Payneham cycling club for the sponsorship and Brenton Whittenbury. (Grundy's Shoes)

Keith Thurgood was born in Broken Hill; New South Wales (N.S.W) on June 17,1913 and began his racing career around the age of 19, he quickly rose to become a champion cyclist.

Keith was awarded the title of outstanding all-round cyclist and at the end of the 1938-39 track season, Thurgood had an impressive 28 wins with races contested in N.S.W, Victoria, Tasmania and South Australia and was given the title of South Australia's No. 1 track cyclist that year.

Thurgood and other members of the Super Elliott racing team travelled all over Australia, with each successful and returned back to Adelaide with numerous smashed records and numerous prizes
